2. TRAVEL INFORMATION

Options for Getting from the Airport to the CSO

Bus: Air France Shuttle/Cars Airfrance - <http://videocdn.airfrance.com/cars-airfrance> .
The most convenient line to get to the CSO is line 2, which leaves Charles de Gaulle (Roissy) Airport every 30 minutes during the hours of 0545h-2300h and deposits passengers at Porte Maillot and Étoile (Arc de Triomphe). The journey takes about 40 minutes if the traffic is clear and an hour or more during rush hours, and costs €15 one way, €24 round trip. If you land at Orly Airport the Air France Shuttle line 1 will take you to Montparnasse and/or Les Invalides and Étoile (Arc de Triomphe).

Taxis: Taxis from the airport to the hotels in Neuilly cost about 50-60€. The taxis rank is just outside the terminal exit.

RER/Metro: From Charles de Gaulle Airport take RER Line B, change at Châtelet, and take Metro Line 1 direction La Défense. Les Sablons is the nearest metro stop to the CSO. Take the exit marked Jardin d'Acclimatation; you will be on Avenue Charles de Gaulle.

Consult <http://www.ratp.fr/> to get a metro map.

Directions to CSO HQ from metro station Les Sablons in Neuilly

Take the exit marked Jardin d'Acclimatation; you will be on the Avenue Charles de Gaulle. Walk towards the modern arch of La Defense (the Arc de Triomphe will be behind you and Monoprix supermarket will be on your right on the opposite side of the Avenue). About 300 m further on, turn left into Rue Ancelle (there is a LCL sign marking a Credit Lyonnais Bank on the corner). The CSO is about 100 meters down this street (rue Ancelle) at no. 7 on your left, behind a white wall and black iron gate. Ring the bell and the guard will let you in. Please have some ID with you to leave with the guard. He will provide you with a visitor's badge.
